Creation of a Healthy Snacks Brand

Complete Brand Creation, Positioning, Name, Slogan, Logo, Packaging

Inspiration

Our client is a foodie herself and loves snacking. However she found the lack of availability of healthy snacking options. Many so called health brands in the market are selling products which are not good for the body.

She wanted to see if really healthy snacks can be made.

She started few products (vegetable based wafers) and sold in the local market through her contacts.

After receiving good response, she decided to scale up the business and create her own Brand.

Insights from Market Research

- Lot of brands are trying to capture this emerging category of healthy snacks
- Mainly the Positioning of the different brands has been based on “Not Fried”, with multiple variations like baked, popped, vaccum cooked and vaccum fried
- The attributes of healthy, tasty, natural, vegetarian, zero trans fat, zero cholesterol, high fibre, no artificial flavours/colours all have become Points of Parity and provide no competitive advantage to any new brand entering this market

Creating Differentiation through Positioning

This is a premium, sun dried and air fried, vegetables and fruits based snack .
