Case Study

Creation of New Brand in the Events Management Market

Marketing & Brand Strategy, Positioning, Name, Slogan, Logo, Creatives

Inspiration

Housie is a popular game mainly among ladies in Ahmedabad, Gujarat, India
Most of the clubs have Sunday Housies with huge participation due to high cash prizes
Our client wanted to create a new housie event which was different from the existing ones

Insights from Market Research

- The cash prizes offered by other housies was TEN TIMES More than our Housie

- So it was tricky to draw the crowds in •Sunday being the most popular day of entertainment, the majority of the housie enthusiasts were already engaged in their favourite destinations

•They had no incentive to go to a different housie event

Marketing Strategy

•Identifying the GAP in the market and avoiding a head-on collision with the existing big players

• Promoting as a Saturday Housie instead of Sunday

• Now Housie enthusiasts could play twice a week

•Saturday Housie was something NEW in the market

Brand Strategy through Differentiation and Positioning

Positioning the Event as a destination of stylish, carefree and fun loving people

The Main Value Proposition was being part of a hip hop crowd and not the Prize Money of Housie

The Differentiation was achieved both by playing on the strength and avoiding the weakness

The Brand Personality was created accordingly.
