Case Study

Repositioning a Stagnant Brand in the HORECA Segment

LUV Trance
Dance & Romantic Dining
Dance with Smile, Live in Style

Business Objective

The establishment consisted of a disco with a restaurant serving Italian and Mexican food.

Footfalls and revenues were declining.

In spite of having a wonderful infrastructure, great chefs and quality cuisines, expected sales was not happening.

The visitors were spending more on nominal snacks and beverages.

Clearly there was disconnect between the expectations of the client and the response from the consumers.

The overall appeal of the place needed to be revamped

Existing Brand

Brand Analysis

- The Original Brand Spirits 0 Soul was shortened to SOS by client and used in Marketing.

- Also the phrase Spirits 0 Soul does not connote anything substantial

- The abbreviation SOS has a negative connotation and does not go with happiness and fun.

- The Brand lacked the attribute of excitement, this was critical as an important segment of the target audience were the young couples, college students etc.

Differentiation Strategy and Repositioning
